"Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God". (Acts 10:33 KJV)

"A Miracle for a Mother"

Lu 7: 11-17

We break from our series of messages from the Book of Ruth in order to honor mothers.

Today we are going to meet a mother who is going to have an unexpected encounter with Jesus. Though the message is not presented in outline form, a brief outline might look like this:

1. The Problems that Molested (V12)
2. The Pity that Moved (V13)
3. The Power that was Manifested (V14-15)
4. The Presence that was Missed (V16)
5. The Purpose that was Magnified (V16)
6. The Pronouncement that was Made (V17)

Let us not just see this as another Bible story but seek to learn and apply what the Holy Spirit of God is teaching each of us as we place ourselves in the scene. Though perhaps not molested by the same problems, our aid will come from the same person.

Thank you visitors, for your presence with us today. We are glad you are here, and we want you to be glad you came.

Pastor Ken

"He Is"

"HE IS ETERNAL, which means that He antedates time and is wholly independent of it. Time began in Him and will end in Him. To it He pays no tribute and from it He suffers no change.

HE IS IMMUTABLE, which means that He has never changed and can never change in any smallest measure. To change He would need to go from better to worse or from worse to better. He cannot do either, for being perfect He cannot become more perfect, and if He were to become less perfect He would be less than God.

HE IS OMNISCIENT, which means that He knows in one free and effortless act all matter, all spirit, all relationships, all events. He has no past and He has no future. He is, and none of the limiting and qualifying terms used of creatures can apply to Him. Love and mercy and righteousness are His, and holiness so ineffable that no comparisons or figures will avail to express it. Only fire can give even a remote conception of it. In fire He appeared at the burning bush; in the pillar of fire He dwelt through all the long wilderness journey. The fire that glowed between the wings of the cherubim in the holy place was called the "shekinah," the Presence, through the years of Israel's glory, and when the Old had given place to the New, He came at Pentecost as a fiery flame and rested upon each disciple."

Are you interested in providing a dessert for the VBS workers? There is a sign-up sheet at the Welcome center if you'd like to help. Each evening there will be a different dessert—cookies for Monday; cupcakes for Tuesday; brownies for Wednesday; and mini ice cream sandwiches for Thursday. Any help you can give will be very much appreciated.

Baby Bottles- Baby bottles are available in the lobby starting today for the Coastal Pregnancy Care Center's fundraiser. If you write a check, please make it to COASTAL PREGNANCY CARE CENTER. If you give cash, please fill out the slip (you'll find in your baby bottle), with your name and address so you'll get a contribution receipt from CPCC. Please return filled bottles back to the church. Thanks!
